

Participatory diagnosis - Italy

Visual summary of main results

39 responses | 14 identified localities | Preliminary descriptive reading

1 Participation profile

1

4

26

8

1

Civil society / NGOs

Sports organisations

Public administration

Academia / education

2 Access barriers

2

77%

consider costs to be a relevant obstacle*

*Moderately, quite a lot or a lot.

Equipment / materials

15/34

Transport / travel

15/34

Insurance / licences

3/34

Activity / membership fees

0/34

3 Diversity, representation and safety

3

33%

36%

43%

71%

limited or absent representation formal or informal protocols

low or null communication accessibility

no representation in decision-making

4 Priorities for local hubs

4

Permanent dialogue tables

25 (81%)

Cooperative and mixed activities

19 (54%)

Staff training

16 (43%)

Intercultural mediation

13 (35%)

Simplify procedures

9 (29%)

Key reading

The diagnosis points to positive experiences, but also to a gap between existing initiatives and stable institutional capacity to turn diversity into an ordinary local sports policy.